

Latin American & Iberian Institute PhD Fellows Colloquium

Friday, March 29
12:00 - 1:30 pm

LAll Conference Room
801 Yale Blvd NE

Join us for the Latin American & Iberian Institute's annual LAll PhD Fellows Colloquium, an afternoon of presentations highlighting the work of exceptional doctoral students across campus whose research and writing explore important topics in Latin Americanist scholarship.

BEAU MURPHY • ARCHAEOLOGY

Architecture and Imperialism:
A Case Study from the Inka Empire.

FIGORELLA VERA-ADRIANZEN • POLITICAL SCIENCE

Building Citizenship: Participation of Victims in Peru's
Post-conflict Reparative Justice Process

DIEGO BUSTOS • SPANISH & PORTUGUESE

Writing the Center: A Transnational Approach.
Agonistic Aesthetics and Middle-Class Politics in Brazil and Colombia

MARIA TERESA GUEVARA BELTRAN • LANGUAGE, LITERACY AND SOCIOCULTURAL STUDIES

Transborder Testimonios of Second Language Learning and Socialization

