Please attach the following materials:

- Research proposal not exceeding three (3) pages in length (single space, 12 pt. font). The proposal should specify the library materials/collections you intend to use as your primary resources (see Call for Applications for links to collections). If you have previously worked in-person with the UNM Special Collections, please briefly describe this work and its relationship to the proposed project.
- Proposed travel itinerary
- Budget. Awards will generally be capped at $3,000. However, higher amounts may be considered for longer-term projects depending on funding availability. Scholars planning extended stays that require funding beyond the capped amount are strongly encouraged to seek supplementary support from other sources. The award can be applied to round-trip travel plus local living expenses (lodging, meals, and incidentals) capped at $160/day. The minimum stay is two weeks. Please note that the Center for Southwest Research and Special Collections is not open on the weekends and summer hours are limited.
- Curriculum vitae or resumé
- One faculty letter or recommendation (student applicants only)

Combine all materials into a single PDF document in the order listed above. The PDF file name should start with your last name (LastName-FirstName-2026-Greenleaf). Email to Laiibusiness@unm.edu by March 31, 2026, 5:00 pm.
